Ruzica Filipceva
President of the Partners Board

“At Grant Thornton Macedonia, we help our clients and our people fulfil their aspirations. We build relationships and develop innovative solutions which help dynamic people and organisations create and realise value. Those solutions are based on our unique insights and they address the five key sources of value in the new economy: financial, physical, organisational, customer, supplier and employee.”

We have a track record of uninterrupted growth, driven by major business innovations and are one of the few firms with common purpose, international presence and global mindset.”
