Who we are

Grant Thornton Mozambique has been operating since 1995 and evolved from a traditional audit, accounting and tax practice to offer a broad range of specialist advisory services to privately held business, public interest entities and the public sector. We also operate in Angola and currently service several audit clients as well as provide financial management for the Global Fund.

Where we are

Our office is located in Maputo from where we service clients from around the whole country. We are part of the Sub Saharan network of Grant Thornton firms.

We can offer our clients access to services from around the network to establish and grow their business in the region

How we work

Grant Thornton works with you at all stages of the business lifecycle, whether it is building or managing portfolios, assessing risks, developing exit strategies, realising value, planning to expand or restructuring.

In the public sector Grant Thornton have a world class reputation in developing infrastructure investments strategies, governance and transparency controls and for improving operational systems. We have worked for the government and focused on making it more efficient, transparent and effective.

We also advise on the beneficiary of funds submitted by international multilateral agencies in order to assist them in the global development of their plans to comply with the committed development of an efficient and effective project.

Our distinctive client service provides both a proactive approach with personalised attention to respond directly to the needs and requirements of the clients wherever they are in the country or in the region.
