Who we are

Grant Thornton South Africa’s roots can be traced back over 100 years. Today we are firmly ranked as leaders in our chosen markets.

Grant Thornton provides assurance, tax, advisory and outsourcing services to dynamic organisations in both the private and public sectors. This includes listed companies, large privately held businesses and private equity backed organisations.

Women in leadership

Three years ago our global and South African ‘Women in leadership’ initiative was launched. Currently Grant Thornton South Africa is proud to say that 32% of our top decision-makers are women, compared to the South Africa national average of 27% and the global average of 22%.

In the public sector we work with national, provincial and local government as well as State Owned Enterprises and Development Finance Institutions.

Where we are

Grant Thornton has a national presence with 11 offices - Bloemfontein, Cape Town, Durban, George, Johannesburg, Nelspruit, Polokwane, Port Elizabeth, Pretoria, Rustenburg and Somerset West.

Africa

South Africa is a major force within its African network. Our African footprint of 23 member firms including Algeria, Botswana, Congo, Côte d’Ivoire, Egypt, Ethiopia, Gabon, Guinea, Kenya, Libya, Mauritius, Morocco, Mozambique, Namibia, Nigeria, Senegal, Tanzania, Togo, Tunisia, Uganda, Zambia and Zimbabwe enables seamless service provision across the continent.

How we work

Our global network ensures we combine international experience with local business and technical expertise.

We help organisations unlock their potential for growth by delivering real insight through a combination of technical rigour, commercial experience and intuitive judgement.

Growing our business

We are committed to shaping a vibrant economy by creating commercial and social environments that enable long-term success and growth for government and business, where people flourish.
